to the Supplier. The Supplier will ensure they are in receipt of the purchase order number before the Goods and/or Services are supplied.

The Company may, without prejudice to any other rights and remedies under the Contract, withhold or reduce the Price on reasonable notice in the event of unsatisfactory performance.

If payment of the undisputed Price is not made by the Company by the due date, the Company will pay the Supplier interest at the rate specified in the Late Payment of Commercial Debts (Interest) Act 1998.

If any sum of money is recoverable from or payable by the Supplier under the Contract (including any sum which the Supplier is liable to pay the Company in respect of any breach of the Contract) that sum may be deducted unilaterally by the Company from any sum then due or which may become due to the Supplier under the Contract or under any other agreement or contract with the Company.

The Company will not provide commercially sensitive information to a third party under the Act unless prior to such disclosure the Company has informed the Supplier of the request for such information and given the Supplier the opportunity to make representations about what material should be disclosed. The Company will be responsible for determining in its absolute discretion whether any information relating to the Supplier or to the Goods and/or Services is exempt from disclosure in accordance with the FOIA.

The provisions of this clause will survive the termination or expiry of the Contract.

The Processor will provide the following information to the Controller: the subject matter and duration of the processing, the nature and purpose of the processing, the type of personal data and categories of data subject.

20. INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS

All intellectual property rights in any materials provided by the Company to the Supplier for the purposes of the Contract will remain the property of the Company but the Company grants the Supplier a royalty-free, non-exclusive and non-transferable licence to use such materials as required until termination or expiry of the Contract for the sole purpose of the Contract.

All intellectual property rights in any materials created or developed by the Supplier to meet the requirements of the Contract will vest in the Supplier. So far as may be necessary for the Company to be able to continue to use the Goods or provide the Services after termination or expiry of the Contract, the Supplier will grant to the Company a non-exclusive, perpetual, irrevocable royalty free licence (with a right to sublicense) to use all intellectual property rights in the materials created or developed to meet the requirements of the Contract.

The provisions of this clause will survive the termination or expiry of the Contract.

21. BREACH

If either Party fails to fulfil its obligations under the Contract (a 'Breach'), the other Party may serve on it a Breach Notice which specifies the Breach, the remedial action to be taken and the time within which such action must be taken.

On receipt of a Breach Notice the Party at fault will remedy the Breach within the time specified in the Breach Notice. Failure to remedy the Breach may be actioned by the Company under clause 27.

This clause will not apply after a notice of termination has been served in accordance with clause 27.

Neither Party will be liable for any delay in performing any of its obligations under the Contract if such delay is caused by circumstances beyond its reasonable control ('a Force Majeure Event'). A Party experiencing a Force Majeure Event will promptly notify the other Party in writing when such circumstances arise and use all reasonable endeavours to resume performance as soon as possible. If such circumstances continue for a continuous period of more than two months, either Party may terminate the Contract by written notice to the other Party.

The Supplier will take all reasonable steps to prevent fraud by its Staff and the Supplier in connection with the Contract will notify the Company immediately if it has reason to suspect that any fraud has occurred or is likely to occur.

27. TERMINATION

The Company may terminate the Contract at any time by giving notice in writing to the Supplier to take effect on any date falling at least 1 month (or, if the Contract is less than 3 months in duration, at least 10 Working Days) later than the date of service of the relevant notice.

The Company may terminate the Contract by written notice with immediate effect if the Supplier undergoes a change of control within the meaning of section 416 of the Income and Corporation Taxes Act 1988 which impacts adversely and materially on the performance of the Contract. The Company may only exercise this right within 3 months after receiving written notice giving full details of the change of control.

The Supplier may terminate the Contract by written notice to the Company if the Company has not paid any undisputed amount within 90 days of it falling due.

28. CONSEQUENCES OF TERMINATION

Termination of the Contract will not affect any right of either Party that has arisen before termination.

Any provision of the Contract that is expressly or by implication intended to have effect after termination will continue in force for the intended period.

On termination or expiry of the Contract, the Supplier will give all reasonable assistance to the Company and any incoming supplier and return all requested documents, information and data to the Company as soon as reasonably practicable.

The Supplier will not assign, novate, sub-contract or in any way dispose of the benefit or burden of the Contract without the prior written consent of the Company.

If the Supplier sub-contracts its obligations under the Contract, it will nevertheless be liable for the performance of its sub-contractor. Sub-contracting any part of the Contract will not relieve the Supplier of any obligation or duty owed to the Company under this Contract.

Where the Supplier enters into a sub-contract for the purpose of performing its obligations under the Contract, it will ensure that a provision is included in such sub contract which requires payment to be made of all sums due by the Supplier to the sub-contractor within a specified period not exceeding 30 days from the receipt of a valid invoice.

In proving the giving of a notice, it will be sufficient to prove that the notice was left or that the envelope containing the notice was properly addressed and posted. The Supplier may not give notice by email unless approval is expressly given by the Company.

31. WAIVER

Failure by either Party to insist on strict performance of the Contract or to exercise any right or remedy on Breach of any provision of the Contract will not constitute a waiver of the Contract or a waiver of any subsequent Breach in the performance of the Contract.

The rights and remedies provided in this Contract are cumulative and not exclusive of any rights and remedies provided by law.

32. SEVERABILITY

If one or more of the provisions of this Contract are or become to any extent invalid or unenforceable under any applicable law, then the remainder of the Contract will continue in full force and effect.

If this happens, both Parties will negotiate in good faith to amend the provision concerned in such a way that as amended it is valid and enforceable and to the maximum extent possible meets the original intention of the Parties.

36. TUPE

At any time during the last 6 months of the Term, the Supplier will provide to the Company within 10 Working Days of a written request, such information as the Company may reasonably require in respect of TUPE. The Supplier will comply with its confidentiality obligations in relation to any information supplied and will permit the Company to use the information for the purposes of TUPE and re-tendering.

If TUPE applies on termination of this Contract, the Supplier agrees to indemnify the Company fully and to hold it harmless at all times from and against all actions, proceedings, claims, expenses, awards, costs and all other liabilities whatsoever in any way connected with or arising from or relating to the provision of employee liability information and the Supplier agrees to indemnify the Company from and against all actions, proceedings, claims, expenses, awards, costs and all other liabilities in connection with or as a result of any claim or demand by any Staff or other personnel or person claiming to be an employee of the Supplier on any date upon which the Contract is terminated and/or transferred to any third party ('Relevant Transfer Date') arising out of their employment or its termination whether such claim or claims arise before or after the Relevant Transfer Date.

In the event that the information provided by the Supplier becomes inaccurate, whether due to changes to the employment and personnel details of the affected Staff made subsequent to the original provision of such information or by reason of the Supplier becoming aware that the information originally given was inaccurate, the Supplier will notify the Company of the inaccuracies and provide the amended information within 10 Working Days.

The provisions of this clause will survive the termination or expiry of the Contract.

37. IR35 RULES AND EMPLOYMENT STATUS

The Supplier agrees to notify the Company as soon as reasonably practicable in the event of a change in the employment status of the Supplier during the period of the Contract within the meaning of Part 2 Chapter 8 of the Income Tax (Earnings and Pensions) Act 2003 ('the IR35 Rules') and to provide all such information regarding the same as may be reasonably requested by the Company.

39. CHANGE IN LAW

The Supplier will not be relieved of its obligations to supply the Goods or perform the Services under this Contract as a result of a change in law if the change and its effect are known at the beginning of the Term.

If a change in law occurs or is shortly to occur which will significantly affect the provision of the Goods and/or Services including the cost of doing so, the Supplier will notify the Company to express an opinion of the likely effects of the change including whether any change is required to the Goods and/or Services or the Contract and whether the Supplier requires any relief from compliance with its obligations.

If the Parties agree upon the effects of the change in law and any financial consequences, such agreement will be implemented through the variation provisions of clause 4. In the case of a dispute, it will be resolved in accordance with the dispute resolution provisions of clause 22.

40. TRANSPARENCY REQUIREMENTS

The Supplier confirms that it understands that the Company, although not required to do so, may publish spending data of transactions over £500 in accordance with the Local Government Transparency Code 2015.

41. ENTIRE AGREEMENT

This Contract is the exclusive statement of the agreement between the Parties in relation to the supply of the Goods and/or Services and it supersedes all previous communications, representations, arrangements and agreements between the Parties.
